

Warranty

BakkerElkhuisen develops excellent products that make using a computer healthy and efficient. Products from BakkerElkhuisen are the perfect combination of function, ergonomics and great design. Products are distributed from BakkerElkhuisen directly or through our extensive reseller and distributor network.

BakkerElkhuisen products are carefully tested to ensure quality. We offer a standard 2 year warranty on all our products. If other conditions apply, then this is indicated on the product's support page. The warranty doesn't cover damage or failure by misuse, neglect, accidents, such as exposure to extreme temperatures, solvents, acids, water and normal wear and tear.

If your product failed within the warranty period please contact the company from which you made your purchase who will be able to help. Check the support page of the specific product on our website where you may find a solution to your query.
